attend to his private affairs.

The official has put in a service of over 16 years taking both Govt and temple service into consideration and hence the one year's furlough recommended is admissible under article 203 mss R. if the condition mentioned (b) iii is satisfied.

The official entered into service on 1.1.12. and remained in the Archeological Deptt till his transfer to Nanjangud as Peshkar. He was subsequently transferred to the Chamaraja nagar temple. He is getting Rs 25+10 P.A. + 5 allowance for teaching the boys Vedasastra in the morning at Chamarajanagar.

If the leave were to be sanctioned some suitable person has to be selected for the Kalasa temple. It is a point for consideration whether proposals from the Dy Comr, Kadur Dt, may be called for.

Subd for orders. Branch II may be consulted as regards leave allowances payable. The Service Register of the Peishkar received from the Dybr is not written up to date and so it is not possible to say when he had last taken his leave.

A search in the file headings & registers of this Branch for 3 years past having been made, no papers regarding grant of privilege leave to Venkata rama Sastri could be traced. Probably the Dy Com^r might have granted him privilege leave or other kind of leave on his own authority.

It is also submitted that as the temple service is just now not pensionable strict application of the Mysore service Regulations may not be quite desirable. The case will have to be ~~specially~~ dealt with as appeared necessary even if it may entail add^l expenditure on the temple funds.
